It condemued combact of the Opposition in the Legislafive Chamber on the Mexican Expedition; and it contrasts with it that of the Opposition in the House of Commons. In England parties may be divided on questions of interest policy. but they are never divided where British diplomey or British armies are engaged abroad. The sentiment of national honour predominates over all divergent opinion. In Parliament all antiquoism coses. The Press manimonely rullies round the Government. Discussion is me J longer beard. At one sitting necessary supplies are roted, and $5,000,000 storling are spent to resone a few English captives out of the hands f Theodore. At such times England has hat one wal as she has but one flag. La France concludes :- " It is a noble example, and worthly of being meditated upon and imitated elsewhere The victory of Magdala is a political fact, the I aportance of which should not be exaggerated To or dise unbled. It gives to England in the firer a en tion of Egypt and the route to In his new elements of prepondennice, and it may be of do-mination, but we should not lose our time in I showing jealousy of hee, or in obstructing her. It is better to study and to learn from the ex imple she sets by what it resight and wisdom great national undertakings which hear to distant countries the mone, the grandour, and the my prosperity of the country, are prepared and,

The Shanghat Mail. Shanghai papers to the 20th have come down by the Ettore, but in the four days that had slapsed since our previous advices, nothing remarkable had taken place: --In Japan Aldzu still keeps the field, and negodiations are going on between him and the Southern party. An manasty to all who have taken arms against the Mikado in the late struggle securit e most likely solution of the difficulty The ten market is slightly lower.

Hongkong, Tuesday Evoning. The Drug market continues quiet and dull. The following are the raling prices, with more sellers than buyers, on ously terms :- New Patein, 86234 to $6 5; Benures, $615 to $6174; Maiwa, 3660 to 36621. The present light condition of the memory market is beginning to have its effect on trade adiong the natives us well as the foreign community, and a suspension of business times be the result if relief is not shortly forthcoming. There have been a few saies of Piece Couls. inchaling some T-Olotha and Yarn, and a payeol 80 Grey Shirtings at an low as $2,90. The unicket for these hat goods may be considered lown about 5 or ton cents, but the decline is more than componented for by the rates of Exchange new falings Transactions reported inclinds 6,000 pieces 3/1 Grey Shirtings at $2.90 to $2.95, 1,000 pieces 7 lbs. ut $2.55, 100 pieces 7 lbs. T-Cloth, at $2.55, 10 bales 38/12 Yarn at $1571. There is some slight inquiry for Raw Cotton, and 300 bales Howhay staple have been placed at $21.00 to $22.50. The chargemarket is dull, affected in a great measure by the tight condition of the money market. There is no speculation in progress, and nearly all the sellers are anxious. o reulize for the purpose of ruising money. There have been some small sales of old Bank at 20 premium, but there are large buyers at this rate as also of new at 4 premions.
